General Comment

Secretary Sebelius, please maintain your ground on the new guidelines. The policies of our government should not take into consideration the beliefs of any religious group as it relates to our citizens. If you believe that we are a nation under God, that is fine, I do not think that his churches should run our country and neither did our forefathers. If these organizations do not like the new policies, then they can tell their congregations not to take part in the services. The rest of us should have access to these services.

Thank you.
